flowers for life

The World of Silk-ka

A story rooted in passion

What began as the dream of a florist's son has grown into a globally recognised brand. When founder Patrick Oude Groeniger faced an unexpected turning point that kept him from working with fresh flowers, he chose a different path, reimagining their beauty through luxurious faux botanicals. A seed was planted for what Silk-ka is today.

From that moment, Silk-ka became more than a name. It became a signature of style, where craftsmanship meets imagination. Our collections draw from a distinct blend of influences: the untamed grace of nature, the language of fashion, and the elegance of interior design. Together, they shape what we believe in most: creating atmosphere through our products. A feeling. A world to step into...

Our company trademark stands as a quiet but powerful emblem of this philosophy. Rooted in symbolism and steeped in story, its elements reflect the values that shape everything we do. Commitment, creativity, and connection. It is a reminder that our work is certainly not only designed to be seen, but also to be felt and experienced.

At its heart lies a Latin phrase:

Intuitem et Magicae

“From intuition, we create enchantment”

This emblem is more than a visual mark. It is a promise to you. A reminder that everything we do is driven by feeling over formula, instinct over imitation. As Silk-ka continues to evolve, we remain devoted to the art of transformation, designing pieces that don't just fill a space, but elevate it. With roots in Dutch design and eyes on the horizon, we look forward to what comes next.

Behind the Scenes

Step inside the making of our 2026 Collection, Chapter Two where imagination set the stage for everything we created. Inspired by the magnetic pull of high-end shopping windows, we crafted our own worlds from the ground up. What you see on these pages is the result of pure creativity, bold choices, and a passion for storytelling through design.

This season, Silk-ka stepped away from the familiar and dove into the allure of iconic shopfronts that captivate people across the globe. Instead of travelling to a glamorous setting, we built our own three bespoke windows, each shaped around its own narrative. Every scene was carefully designed to recreate the wonder that makes passers-by stop and stare.

Creating these worlds meant challenging our creativity, refining every choice and detail until each display felt alive. It was a process filled with experimentation, bold inspiration, and plenty of playful discovery. The result? A fresh, vibrant chapter that celebrates the art of visual storytelling.

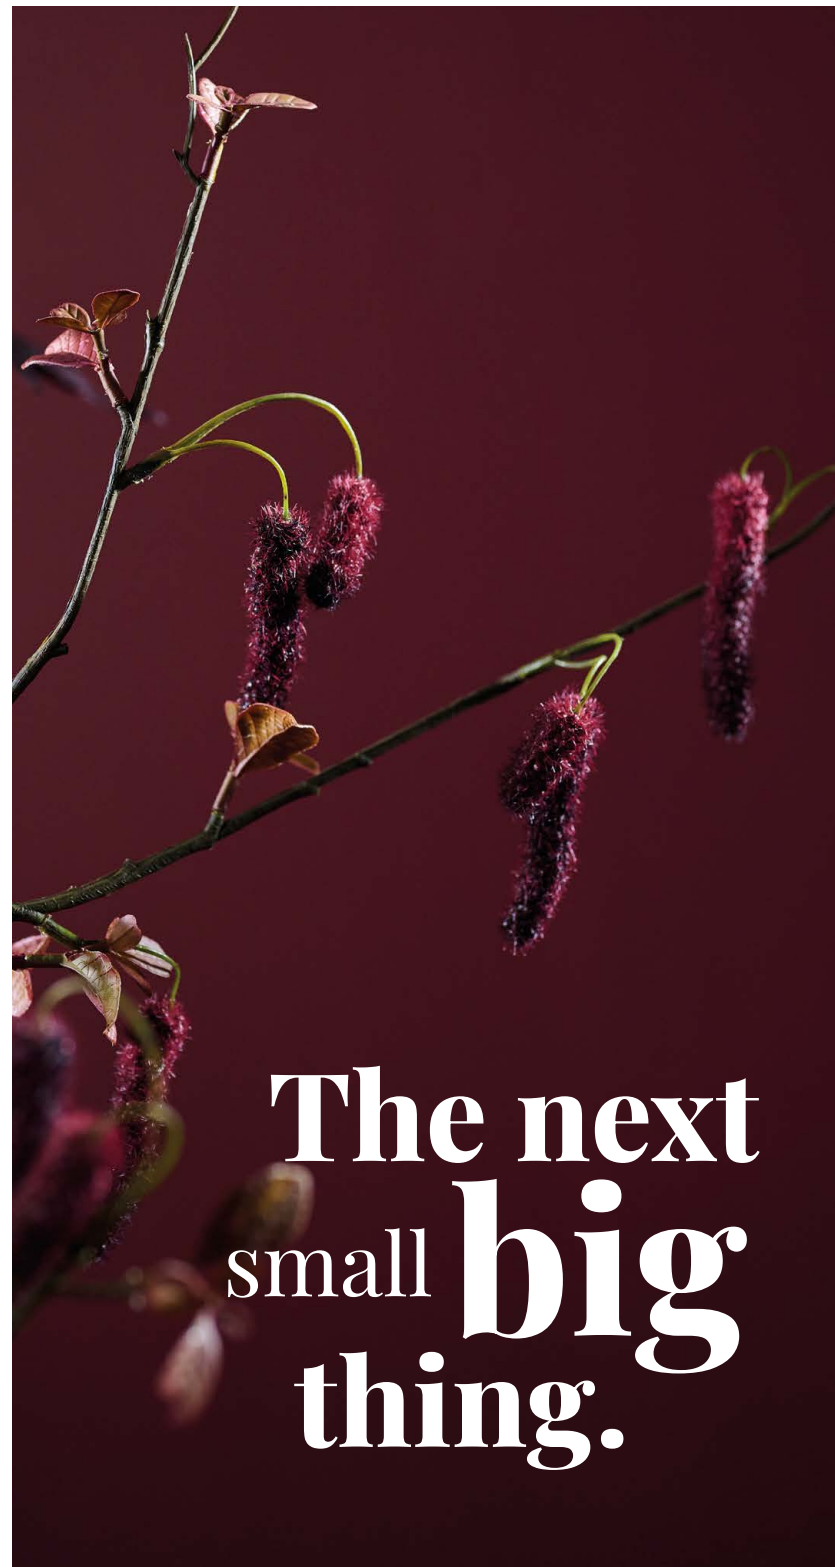

As you turn these pages, we hope you feel the same thrill we felt bringing this collection to life. Chapter Two is an invitation to look closer, see differently, and let your imagination wander.

TREND ITEMS

“Catkins: small in gesture, grand in impact exactly the Silk-ka way.“

The new autumn icon

Compact in form, yet powerful in presence. A trend piece that never shouts, but always stands out, precisely because of its quiet confidence. Meet this season’s must-have: Catkins. Sparked by nature, perfected by Silk-ka design.

No wild-origin storytelling needed, they speak for themselves.

These exclusive new Catkins varieties were created to transform the ‘almost invisible’ into something intentionally striking: a luxurious understatement that instantly elevates every arrangement.

With their velvety-soft touch, light and airy movement, and effortlessly elegant silhouette, they bring refined tension and warmth to the deep autumn shades in this collection: rich burgundy, earthy greens, and soft browns.

The effect? A flawless balance between understated and iconic.

Nature’s Velvet Blanket

The gentle luxury of moss-covered branches.

This season, moss takes centre stage. Deep green, velvety, and quietly soothing, it evokes pine, forest stillness, and winter warmth. Timeless and grounding. Draped over our new branches, moss becomes nature’s own layer of soft luxury, adding calm sophistication to every design. Each moss-covered stem reflects time, growth, and authenticity, a trend that feels both nostalgic and new.

Shades of Brown

The new neutrals.

Our collection embraces warm coffee tones and rich chocolate hues, trend colours you can almost taste. Earthy, refined, and perfectly balanced, these shades pair beautifully with the collection’s soft pastels, blending dry textures with fresh, blooming life.

XXL Stems

Where elegance extends beyond.

This season redefines proportions. Stems grow taller, lines bolder, and elegance gains new dimension. Extended roses and dahlias bring height, movement, and drama to every arrangement. XXL stems spark limitless creativity, turning each bouquet into a refined, powerful statement. Sometimes beauty simply needs more room to bloom.

INTRO

Put me on display

In the world of visual allure, the shop window becomes a stage where brands tell their story, without using a single word. Within this play of colour, composition, and imagination, Silk-ka found its inspiration for Collection 2026, Chapter Two – Put Me On Display.

This collection celebrates the art of presentation. The shop window transforms into a canvas of creativity, a place where flowers take the spotlight and draw the eye again and again. We explore countless ways to bring our designs to life: from striking floral installations to graceful bouquets that spark the imagination.

Discover three stunning themes where flowers in full bloom take centre stage, their realism nothing short of astonishing. Around them, sleek branches in subtle, earthy tones bring a sense of seasonal warmth and quiet harmony. While touches of soft tiffany gold add a subtle festive glow and effortless elegance. Those who take a closer look will discover a world of refinement: colour gradients that blend seamlessly and compositions where every detail speaks of true craftsmanship. Silk-ka invites you to turn every display into a story worth seeing!
